						 Design your Reading Plan for July.
 RiBit! Read In Bed; It's Terrific!	 Give the USA a birthday party. How old is America tomorrow?	 	 Read a Book that takes you to another part of the country.	 Is there an historical site in Utah that your family hasn't visited? Check out the National Register Of Historic Places at your local library to find sites near you.	 The American Diary series and the Magic Tree House are a series of engaging tales of the past. Read them and leave an every day world behind.	 Make a birthday card for America.
 Ask a relative or friend to tell you stories about their heritage.	 Grab some sidewalk chalk and take your children outside. Encourage them to write anything they wish. Talk about what they have written.	 Learn a patriotic song and sing it with your family.		 Find out why the colors of our flag are red, white and blue.	 	 Check out books, tapes, or videos from the library about famous people.
 Write a poem about Utah.		 Show your children how to read a map. Once you are on the road let them take turns at being the Navigator.	 Make a list of qualities early settlers would have needed to live in Utah.	 Who is the Mayor of your city? Write him or her a thank you note and express your appreciation for the service they provide to the community.	 Organize a book exchange. Gather books and magazines you no longer want to keep. Call your extended family, friends, and neighbors and invite them to do the same. Ask everyone to bring a treat to share.	 Learn the entire National Anthem and sing it to your family.
	 	 Learn more about the states that surround Utah. Write a letter to their visitor's bureau for more information.	 Using a map, plan a trip to visit every state. How far would you travel?		 Have a picnic. Learn about games early settler's children played. Visit the library or ask your parents to help you find them on the Internet. Choose your favorites and share them with your friends.
 Visit with Grandparents or elders and have them tell you about a historical memory. Draw a picture of their memory.	 Family reflections: What was your favorite activity this month? Count the stars on your book-marks. Add up the numbers for your family reading. Congratulate each other for reaching a little higher.	   READ WITH A CHILD
